

Murmansk sea Captains Association was founded in 1989 The idea of creating an organization to assist the master in matters of maritime safety and impact on international marine policy

,
as an advisory body to the IMO
, appeared in 1971.

As
a result of three years of correspondence, organization of preliminary meetings of representatives of national organizations, captain of Germany, France, Italy, Ireland, Belgium, Netherlands, Norway and South Africa

,
was officially registered in 1974, non-governmental organization captain IFSMA
with its

main headquarters in London

.
Currently IFSMA brings together 30 national associations
have in their ranks 8,479
captains

,
178 individuals and 7
honorary members

,
representatives from 47
countries

.
The motto «Unity for safety at Sea» ("
Unity for Safety
at Sea
"

) is the main activity
in IFSMA
on protecting the legitimate rights of the captain in his daily

activities

,

in

terms of increased requirements

for

environmental protection, while reducing

crew size, increased physical and moral

loads

at ports

and challenging

sailing conditions

.

As

a non-governmental international organization

,

since

1975

, IFSMA

gained

consultative status with

IMO.

The main objective of this status

is to provide full support to the International Maritime Organization

in its quest to improve safety

at

sea

.

In 1989, IFSMA were taken of the Association of Masters of the USSR - Estonia, Odessa, Murmansk

,
1990

-
Vladivostok

,
in 1991

,
Samara

,
the organization
appeared in the perestroika period
.

Organizational meeting of the Association of Masters of Murmansk was held March 23, 1989, which was preceded by nearly a year of the Action Team captains

:
Vibaha
ZA

,
Galkin
VN
Igritskogo
RB

,
Lena
L.

,
Cherepanov
AA
to develop a charter

,
governance structure,
financing issues
.

President

was elected

captain

Lena

L.

City

Public

Organization

"

Association of

Murmansk

captains

was

registered

on May 24

this

year,

the judicial authorities

of

Murmansk

, and

November 2,

accepted

as a member of the International Federation of Associations of the captains.